

Dramatic Association of Lehi

Began in 1854-55

First Members

Thomas Taylor: President

James W. Taylor: Stage Manager

Others who participated in the first Dramatic Productions:

William H. Taylor

Mrs. Isabell Norton

Judd Edwin Standring

James Harwood

William Hudson

John Neil

Joseph Field

Robert Stoney

Andrew Anderson

Prime Coleman

George Coleman

Riley Judd

William Sharp

William Van Dyke

Oscar Taylor

Mrs. Ann Taylor

Henry McConnell

Mrs. James W. Taylor

Emma Evans

Margaret Zimmerman

Elizabeth Zimmerman

Emma Lawrence

Lydia Karren

William Burgess Jr.

The first productions were “Priestcraft in Danger” and “Luke the Laborer”. Tallow candles were used as floodlights and wagon covers painted with charcoal and red paint from the hills above Lehi formed the scenery and drop curtain.